Lectio Divina

 Each Friday at 9.30am in Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, Middle Park, David Hofman OCarm leads a group in understanding and praying the scriptures using the practice of lectio divina or divine reading.

This ancient Christian practice is used by Carmelites around the world in building communities of prayer and contemplation.

Join this group in a quiet oasis of prayer. You are welcome to attend regularly or when you can.

THE ONCE & FUTURE REFORMATION

The Way of the Spirit, a Symposium
Thursday 25 to Saturday 27 May

This year is the 500th anniversary of the start of the European Reformation. Matthew's Gospel speaks of how "a teacher brings forth out of his treasure things new and old." Our Symposium is an opportunity to talk about the current need for renewal and reformation today, in the churches and in the world. The spiritual life is about both individuals and community. It is necessarily at the centre of such change and is the main subject of the papers. The Centre's own purpose, to facilitate spiritual journeys, informs the event.

Our Symposium will be diverse, ecumenical, and imaginative. Join us for three days of lectures, reflections and discussion on ways of learning from the past, of living in the present, of looking to the future.

CARMELITE SPIRITUALITY

 Events in our program focusing on Carmelite Spirituality are accompanied by this logo.

In addition you can request your own qualified and experienced facilitators to provide workshops and retreats for your parish, school or organisation. Topics include Carmelite Spirituality, Prayer, Liturgy, Meditation, and iGod (technology for the spiritual journey).

KEY to Venues

CL	Carmelite Library
MR	Malone Room
OCP	O'Connor/Pilkington Rooms
OLMC	Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church
SJ	St Joseph's Church, Port Melbourne

Life Conversations

Spiritual Direction is available through conversations about your life in the light of your faith or values. Such one-on-one conversations support those on the spiritual journey.

Recognising the Holy Spirit is the true Director, through conversation we listen together and hear how God's Spirit is at work in you and inviting a response.

The Carmelite Way Pilgrimage

The Eighth Annual Carmelite Way Pilgrimage
Friday 10 – Sunday 12 November 2017.

The Carmelites will lead pilgrims in prayer and reflection during the walk along the Yarra Valley Rail Trail. The evenings during the pilgrimage include a presentation on the Carmelite tradition and other reflective topics.

Spiritual Learning Circle

A new reflective and experiential group meets regularly to deepen spirituality by exploring Christian topics such as compassion, forgiveness, hope, atonement and others as they emerge.

These sessions aim to connect the thinking and talking with daily living – bringing head and heart together and enhancing Christian living.

The Carmelite Centre program is designed around three threads which reflect the Carmelite Way:

Stillness & Silence
gives us the reflective space
from which we can act.

Express & Explore
allows us to meet others with whom we can think and talk about the Carmelite Way.

Embrace & Act
allows us to bring contemplation into every aspect of our lives.
